

The Louis Goldberg Award 2011

The Louis Goldberg Award is awarded in memory of the late Louis Goldberg, a devoted supporter of Phab, and is presented annually to someone aged 25 or under.

Charlie Branson from Hounslow Phab Club.

Charlie is 18 and has been a club member since he was 11. He has always been an active member, taking part in all aspects of Phab, be it residential, fundraising or activities. Charlie has been a huge support to his family, having two disabled siblings. He now lives independently and is training to be a Youth Worker, and volunteers with Phab at its many sessions including the Hounslow Extra Club which is a holiday scheme for young people with disabilities. He is a great asset to Phab and his building skills, learnt at school, have recently been put to excellent use in the refurbishment of the Hounslow Phab offices. Charlie is a great asset to the club and to the Youth Service and an excellent and fun loving ambassador for Phab.

Other nominee was Lyndzi Burton has been nominated from the Multiple Abilities Club in Stoke on Trent – a club with a huge membership of over 800. Lyndzi is 17 and is a great asset to the club as a volunteer and fundraiser and loved by all the members.