Willie Booth Travel Award Application Form

These awards have been made possible by generous donations to a fund set up in memory of the late Reverend Prebendary Willie Booth CVO, Vice President of Phab.

Eligible applicants with either a physical or learning disability, aged 14 upwards, are invited to make an application for an award to cover expenses for travel relating to regional, national and international sports or educational projects e.g Special Olympics. These awards are available to both Phab Club members and non-members.

The scheme is currently able to offer four travel bursaries this year up to a maximum of £250 each.
